PUBLIC COMMENT –

Eileen McNamee
- She provided information regarding the Thom McNamee Memorial St. Patrick’s Day Parade in East Dundee on March 14, 2020, and the fireworks on March 21, 2020. She stated that more specific information regarding business applications, King and Queen applications, and volunteering can be found on their website at www.dundeestpats.com.
- Ms. McNamee also asked for permission from the Board that the Carpentersville police close down portions of Washington and Illinois streets for the staging of the parade in Carpentersville.

Trish Glees (Dundee Township Supervisor)
- Supervisor Glees spoke about the Dundee Township 708 Mental Health Board referendum coming up during this election. She provided statistics regarding Dundee Township residents and mental health issues. She explained what a 708 Mental Health Board is comprised of and the purpose it serves such as counseling, employment services, day training and treatment, substance abuse rehab, transportation, personal assistance and support, and family respite support. Supervisor Glees then spoke about the proposed 1.5% tax levy of the Equalized Assessed Value of a property which would provide funding for the 708 Board.
- Supervisor Glees introduced Jim Gould, a longtime resident of Carpentersville, who spoke of his personal experience having an adopted son David, now 27, who has a severe developmental disability. Mr. Gould said that when David turned 22-years-old all services went away due to his age. Mr. Gould said that although his family is lucky and receives state aid, many families are on the waiting list for service, 200 of them being local.
- Supervisor Glees also mentioned the following:
  * Saturday, February 22, 2020, from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. will be the Say Yes to the Prom Dress event
  * Every Thursday from 2:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. Dundee Township Cares has its food pantry and clothes closet
  * Tuesday, April 14, 2020, is the annual town meeting where residents get the opportunity to speak to the Supervisor
Gloria Kelley (CASA Kane County)
- Ms. Kelley introduced herself as the Executive Director of CASA Kane County. She explained that they are Court Appointed Special Advocates who are appointed by the judiciary to be a child’s guardian ad litem for children in the foster care system. Ms. Kelley said the Kane County program is one of the largest programs in the state of Illinois, last year serving 500 children in abuse, neglect, and probate courts. She said the program is a 501(c)(3) that works very closely with the judiciary and cities and gave further details about the program including that about 10% of the total children served come from Carpentersville. Ms. Kelley said they are trying to raise awareness and would like a specific contact to partner with at the Village, and reiterated that they collaborate with various local and school officials in order to help protect children.
